

Our Next Meeting is October 26th

Learn about the photography of Roman Vishniac. Meeting is free and open to the public. 7:30-9:30pm, Johnson Education Center, D&R Greenway Land Trust, One Preservation Place, Princeton NJ.

Now is the time to join or renew your membership in the Club.

Founded in 1982, the Princeton Photography Club is a diverse group of photographers who share ideas, techniques, and fellowship, while working to improve their photographic abilities. Your membership fee allows us the opportunity to invite outstanding speakers and workshop leaders, to continue our close relationships with other nonprofit organizations in the area (including the D&R Greenway Land Trust, Historical Society of Princeton, the Princeton Battlefield Society, and Grounds for Sculpture), and to provide curatorial management for the Lakefront Gallery at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital Hamilton as well as the Millstone River Gallery at Merwick Care & Rehabilitation Center in Plainsboro. PPC is one of the few photography clubs with two galleries in which to exhibit. This gives both our members and, by invitation, local artists venues where they can display their talents.

We have some exciting presenters already lined up for the upcoming months including Matthew Christopher of "Abandoned America" fame; Katherine Bussard, Peter C. Bunnell Curator of Photography at the Princeton University Art Museum; award-winning photographer Adam Eckberg; and Jeffrey

Whetstone, an acclaimed Photography faculty member at Princeton University.

In addition, we have at least three new workshops planned for Winter and Spring: "Photography Prompts" led by David Anderson; "Shooting the Milky Way" with Peter Alessandria; and a Photoshop workshop entitled "The Extended Image" taught by Hinda Schuman (who is teaching the NIK class early next month). Remember that these workshops are available for Club members only.

We will have a membership table set up at the October meeting for you to join or check your membership status. Or you can download our membership form from our website: <http://www.princetonphotoclub.org/Membership.html>.

Hope to see you next Wednesday.
