

Stay Safe On Halloween.

Between walking with your costumed kids in the dark and trying to get that perfect picture, be careful in the streets and sidewalks. Halloween is magical, but tragic accidents happen. Keep your eyes and ears open.

Exploring NIK Software Plugins (PPC members only)

Date: Friday, November 4 at D&R Greenway

Time: 1:00 - 3:30 pm

Moderator: Hinda Schuman

$40

NIK software is now free. We will explore what you can do with this amazing plug-in for Adobe Lightroom, Photoshop and Photoshop Elements. For this workshop we will explore Define, Analog Effects Pro, Color Efex Pro 3.0, Viveza 2, & Silver Efex Pro 2.

Please bring a laptop loaded with the program(s), and we will start with the recommended order and work our way through the 5 plugins. If you don't have a laptop or are just considering downloading the plug-ins be sure to have a paper and pen.

We will explore the look and feel of different film types, cameras, styles, and lenses. We will create stunning black and white images from original color images and learn to tone and implement different elements help to bring out hidden details from your images.

General Meeting Wednesday, Nov 9, 2016 (Free and Open to the Public)

Urban Exploration, ruin porn... call it what you will. This is a genre of photography that increasingly fascinates photographers, among them the internationally acclaimed photographer Matthew Christopher, who runs the website "Abandoned America." Not only does Matthew do some incredible photography of places most of us don't notice or know about or look over and around, but he does it with thoughtfulness and a desire to do justice to the history of the place and its meaning. In doing so, he touches on issues that run through all categories of photography. Matthew is photographing more than abandoned buildings here, much more. His latest photography book, Abandoned America: Dismantling the Dream, will be available for purchase and signing.

The event, sponsored by the Princeton Photography Club, is free and open to the public. Light refreshments will be offered. The meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 9 at the D&R Greenway Land Trust, One Preservation Place, Princeton, NJ, starting at 7:30 pm. ADA accessible. For directions or more information, contact David Anderson, President, at 609-658-8551 or visit the PPC website at www.princetonphotoclub.org.
