Gary Saretzky

Gary has been photographing blues musicians for years. His images grace CD albums and musicians' websites. He has had a number of blues photo-exhibits in recent years, and a selection was included in his retrospective at the Rider University Art Gallery in 2007. Check out Gary's website, <http://saretzky.com/> and see what else he is into. He candidly admits to under-maintaining his site, so some of the web photography may not be up to his present standards. Seems that Gary, like wine, and the rest of us, improves with age!

Expect to see about 40 of Gary's photographs at the Lambertville gallery. January may seem like a long time off but with holidays coming up, better mark your calendars now!

Congratulations, Gary, on being the first to announce a 2011 exhibit in Members News!

SAMUEL VOVSI was one of 42 artists accepted into the unusually named multi-media exhibit YEA! Yo Emerging Artists Project at Gloucester County College. Congratulations on your acceptance, Samuel!

Some 500 pieces were submitted, and there is a $500 cash prize for the winner of the 2010 Emerging Artist Award.

Stairway to Heaven

Samuel Vovsi

Be at the October 22 opening to learn first hand if our Samuel will "emerge" this year! At the same time, take in a piece of the South Jersey art scene.

Sam shares some notes about his photo "Stairway to Heaven." It was taken last fall in Marvao, Portugal. Marvao is a village with a castle atop a hill, and is completely surrounded by a wall. "You can walk on the top of the wall around the whole village." Samuel adds, "Great views, few tourists (although their number is increasing). ... Highly recommended!"

Show up for the opening reception of Y!YEAP at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, October 22.

MAIA REIM, you may recall, (MN Vol 2010 25, Sept 14) won a three-year spot on a traffic control box in Somerset County for her image "Horses Graze."

We learned that her art has been installed at the Bernards Township intersection of South Findley Avenue and Cross Road, and is now on exhibit 24/7 for all to see.
