The very same IGOR currently has two tintypes in the "6th Annual Juried Alternative Processes Competition Exhibition" at New York City's Soho Photo Gallery, 15 White Street, New York, NY 10013. The exhibit is open through December 4th.

Tintypes are images created on emulsion-coated metal, and developed with a wet chemical process. It's an even older medium than film, boys and girls.

SAMUEL VOVSI took home a Bronze Award in the International Aperture Awards Competition! His image "Loneliness" won in the People and Portraits amateur category. Samuel tells us that according to organizers "The platinum, gold, silver and bronze awards are recognized by the judges as high quality images..." Sam also told us "It is a pretty big event, with [numerous] participants and cash prizes." The competition contained 11 categories: 8 for pros and 3 for amateurs.

Congratulations on your success, Samuel.
