new jersey noir

It's a feather in the cap of a photographer whose photo becomes a book cover. When that photo is a self-portrait, and the book editor and author of the introduction is the renowned Joyce Carol Oates, the feathered cap is bolstered by heaps of admiration and pride for our very own Richard Trenner, photographer. Richard's shadowy likeness, "Self-portrait at an Oil Refinery," adorns the cover of new jersey noir.

On behalf of our club, BIG Congratulations Richard!

Show up at Labyrinth Books, 122 Nassau Street, Princeton on October 26, at 6:00 pm to attend a book party for new jersey Noir.

Julian Weitzenfeld

About the venue, Julian says, "There is lots of free parking across the street and within walking distance of Mt. Holly's arts and crafts scene (several shows and a new theater scattered among basically working-class housing in a traditional New Jersey style)."

About the photographs, Julian told us "I was affected by the fact that the gallery for this year's show is in a hospital."

"Although the gallery is NOT spread across operating rooms, etc., I selected entries that I thought would be appropriate for hospital walls. Although the two pieces are of different continents, have different palettes and formal structure, I realized afterwards that they have a deep spiritual likeness. Both are of tranquil, shaded refuges in old waterfront towns that have recently acquired a bustling tourist industry, in one case on the Atlantic coast of Portugal and in the other on the Delaware River. "

"[I won't know until the reception] whether one or both images are in the show. The pickup for works not accepted is at the reception."

Johnny Perna has a photo exhibit underway at the Hillsborough Library on Beekman Lane, Hillsborough, NJ. The show runs only through October.

"Hope you all can come out and see where my photography has taken me." -- Johnny Perna

Information for Contributors

Please read the following, then submit your news, images, or photo-website link directly to the Newsletter Editor.

1. How To Get Your Item Into Members News

- E-mail the editor about it yourself. We don't scout out news. To protect privacy and honor individual preferences, we don't print stories from one club member about another. If you want your story told on these pages before it is public knowledge, you've got to e-mail it to the editor yourself.

2 What to Send

- Send
  - 1) timely news about your own upcoming exhibits, publications, and other public events, such as photography lectures or classes you will be teaching.
  - 2) non-exhibition images from members who seldom exhibit. These will be published on an as-needed basis. Please send us work you are proud of. This feature is open to members who have not had an image in Members News within the last six months or so.
  - 3) links to members' own photography websites for inclusion in the PPC Members' Websites list.
- E-mail your submission directly to the editor, subject: "Members News."
- Include an image or two (any size, filetype, and color space) with your exhibition announcement. Name image files as: Lastname_Firstname_ImageTitle.jpg (Example: Gerber_Jerry_LostToy.jpg). We need title and artist attached to the image-file, to ensure correct labeling.
- Don't concern yourself at all with the quality of your writing, but please give us accurate information. Tell us everything that an uninformed reader would need to attend your event or acquire your publication. For exhibitions and award ceremonies include as much of these as you can: venue name and address; contact information; opening, opening reception, and closing dates; exhibit times; event fees (if any); and other useful or interesting information. For publications tell us publication name, cover-date or volume, and in-store date, as known. Extra information is better than too little. The editor likes to cut.
- We respect copyright laws. Please do not send material that is copyrighted or wholly or partly created by others. We do not publish magazine or book pages, web pages, or materials owned or created by others.

3 When To Send

- September through June, submit date-sensitive information three weeks before the event to ensure timely coverage. Double that time for events from July through September. If you can't give us that much lead, send your item anyway. Sometimes it works.

4 What We'll Do To Your Submission

- Your text will likely be edited or completely rewritten for style, format, and content. Your images will be re-sized and processed to the MN standard format. Press Releases may be rejected if they cannot be readily altered. If accepted, they will be changed to fit the Newsletter style, and format.
- Accepted stories, images, and links will run in Members News, a newsletter which is distributed by e-mail to club members and beyond, and posted on the Newsletter page of the PPC web site. Images are offered to the PPC webmaster for possible posting elsewhere on our website.

5 When We Goof

- We try to get it right. If we err and you let us know, we'll print a correction in a regular following issue.

6 Need help? Have questions?

- Drop the editor an e-mail.
